Hi [REDACTED]

Hope you're well and rested after your holiday and ordeal in the States.

The news about Barrett is not quite as grim as it sounds.

There has been an update on our situation. A meeting with the Health Department District and the Mental Health Directorate was held on Thursday 15th November. This was attended by the Director of the centre Dr Trevor Sadler. Dr Sadler has informed us that adolescents admitted to the centre will be able to continue their treatment till they are discharged. A team will be established to review the possible options for the service. There had been no timeline given for either of these. There has been no direction on the a future admission of adolescents who are on the waiting list.

Look forward to catching up with you soon for a coffee. Hope that there are no Jonnie Ruffo's there taht day.

Love

kev

I've just caught up with all of the Child Protection inquiry Information since being back at work and heard that they're looking at closing down Barrett?

Wow!

Anyways, I'm free for coffee – so lets catch up!
